The Washington Monthly

December 8, 1994

Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Please accept my apologies for not responding sooner. I'm afraid we will not be able to publish your work. Without question, interest in the Kennedy assassination has not abated, nor will it anytime soon. Nonetheless, it falls somewhat outside our scope of interest and expertise. Best of luck getting it into print.

All the best,

Charlie Peters